The Boston Globe Names Integrated Financial Partners a Top Place to Work for 2017

Magazine honors the best employers in Massachusetts

WALTHAM (November 17, 2017) – Integrated Financial Partners (IFP) has been named one of the Top Places to Work in Massachusetts in the 10th annual employee-based survey project from The Boston Globe. The Top Places to Work 2017 issue was published online at Globe.com/topplaces on the night of November 16 and in The Boston Globe Magazine on November 19.

Top Places to Work recognizes the most admired workplaces in the state voted on by the people who know them the best—their employees. The survey measures employee opinions about their company’s direction, execution, connection, management, work, pay and benefits, and engagement. The employers are placed into one of four groups: small, with 50 to 99 employees; medium, with 100 to 249 workers; large, with 250 to 999; and largest, with 1,000 or more.

IFP was ranked in the medium category for the 7th consecutive year. IFP is an independent, fee-based financial planning firm based out of Waltham, MA. They have years of experience helping people accumulate wealth, transition their businesses efficiently and prepare for retirement. Paul Saganey, President of IFP said, “Over the past 21 years, it has been important to me and our entire organization that IFP continues to evolve as a firm. We pay attention to the needs of our advisors and employees to provide the support they need to grow and thrive in a changing world while having fun and maintaining a work/life balance.”

“Our winning companies are all in on a secret,” said Katie Johnston, the Globe’s Top Places to Work editor. “Treating employees well isn’t that difficult, and the payoff -- increased morale, retention, and productivity -- is huge.”

The rankings in the Top Places to Work are based on confidential survey information collected by Energage (formerly WorkplaceDynamics), an independent company specializing in employee engagement and retention, from nearly 75,060 individuals at 334 Massachusetts organizations. The winners share a few key traits, including offering progressive benefits, giving their employees a voice, and encouraging them to have some fun while they’re at it.
