INTEGRATED FINANCIAL PARTNERS WELCOMES HOOGASIAN/GAY TEAM

JULY 27, 2017- Integrated Financial Partners (IFP), a Registered Investment Advisor with over 20 offices across the country announced that Jim Hoogasian and Ed Gay have joined their firm.

Veteran financial advisors, James J. Hoogasian, MBA and Edward J. Gay, with a combined 33 years of experience, joined the Worcester, MA office of IFP. As of May 31, 2017, Hoogasian and Gay served over $55m of commissions and fee based assets*. They partnered with IFP to leverage the scale and objectivity of one of the largest enterprises affiliated with LPL Financial.

"We are excited to have access to the resources of Integrated Financial Partners and their refined approach in partnering with CPAs and other centers of influences which will assist in our efforts to elevate our practice to a new level," said Jim Hoogasian.

Paul Saganey, President of Integrated Financial Partners, commented, "we are thrilled to have Jim and Ed join IFP and look forward to a productive partnership in their continued success. With the seismic shifts occurring in the industry, IFP continues to resonate as an organization that can provide significant infrastructure due to our scale coupled with the tools to enable advisors to turn the disruption in the marketplace into an opportunity".

*Asset numbers were reported by Hoogasian/Gay, based on prior business and have not been independently and fully verified by LPL Financial.
